CELEBRATING 25 YEARS

ANIMAL WELFARE AND SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH
1985 TO 2010, OCTOBER 25 TO 26

What: The Animal Welfare and Scientific Research: 1985 to 2010 Symposium

When: October 25-26, 2010, with pre-conference IACUC and AWIC workshops on October 24

Where: Marriott Bethesda North Hotel and Convention Center, Bethesda, MD

How: Register at www.AWSRSymposium.com or Email AWSRSymposium@mail.nih.gov

Who should attend: Institutional Officials, administrators, compliance personnel, IACUC members, scientists, veterinarians and individuals with an interest in the important role of animal models in biomedical research and the contributions of animal models to the improvement of health and quality of life for both humans and animals.

The symposium will celebrate and acknowledge the achievements of two and a half decades of biomedical research conducted under the U.S. Government Principles, the Public Health Service (PHS) Policy on Humane Care and Use of Laboratory Animals, and the Animal Welfare Act and Regulations.

Meeting Value
- Find out about advances in science and animal care
- Meet USDA and OLAW expectations in training of IACUC members and animal care program personnel.

During the three day event, we will recognize past achievements in the field, and discuss advances in animal welfare and scientific research. The first day of the symposium will consist of sessions discussing advances in (1) Animal Housing Facilities (2) Institutional Animal Care and Use Committees (3) Education and Training and (4) Veterinary Care. The second day of the symposium will consist of lectures and discussion by leading biomedical scientists speaking about the contributions of their work to human and animal health and to advancing the health of the Nation and the world.

Travel Awards - Veterinary Students and Residents in Laboratory Animal Medicine

A limited number of travel awards will be offered to outstanding students who have an interest in laboratory animal medicine and animal welfare. For more information on eligibility and how to apply visit us online.

More Information & Registration

AWSRSymposium@mail.nih.gov   www.AWSRSymposium.com